When Change Needs a Network

Lutheran Services in America

Lutheran Services in America is a national network of 300 health and human services organizations that reaches one in 50 people across 1,400 communities in the United States each year. Recognized by The Chronicle of Philanthropy and Forbes as one of the nation's top nonprofit organizations, the Lutheran Services in America network operates with more than $23 billion in combined annual revenue.

Headquartered in Washington, DC, Lutheran Services in America leads innovative collaborations with partners in philanthropy, academia, healthcare and others to address the most critical challenges in our communities and empower people to lead their best lives.

300 MEMBER ORGANIZATIONS

Today there are 300 Lutheran social ministry organizations in the United States. In 1997, these organizations came together with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod to form Lutheran Services in America.

250,000 EMPLOYEES

Lutheran Services in America member organizations create jobs for more than 250,000 people across the country.

$23B IN REVENUE

With over $23 billion in annual revenue, Lutheran Services in America is one of the country's largest and most impactful health and human services networks.

1 in 50 PEOPLE

The Lutheran Services in America network impacts six million lives – that's one in 50 people – in America each year.

PROGRAMS & SERVICES

OUR NETWORK

300 health and human services organizations in 1,400 communities

Explore our interactive map at lutheranservices.org